DEBATE ON BONUS BLOCKS PASSAGE OF INFLATION BILL

George Joins Glass in Fight Against Granting President Power To Cheaper Nation's Currency.

CASH BONUS ITEM TIED INTO MEASURE

Robinson, of Indiana,
Would Give President
Right To Pay Vets With Part of New Money.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—

The senate late today gave its approval to that section of the Roosevelt inflation program which would empower the president to reduce the gold content of the dollar.

The vote climaxed a protracted and spirited debate in which republican regulars sought to eliminate the clause, wanted by the administration for use in its international efforts to stabilize currencies.

The senate recessed until tomorrow without reaching a final vote on inflation.

Democratic leaders gave up hope of reaching a final vote today as injection of the bonus controversy prolonged the debate.

Pending at quitting time was an amendment by Robinson, republican, Indiana, to permit the president, in his discretion, to use part of the proposed $2,000,000,000 in new currency to pay the soldiers' bonus.

As first introduced the amendment would have made it mandatory upon the president to pay the bonus, but Robinson yielded to entreaties of Senator Long, democrat, Louisiana, and others to change it in order to gain more votes.

Glass Fights Bill.

Shortly before the vote on the gold clause, Senator Glass, of Virginia, veteran democratic authority on monetary matters, took the floor in opposition to his party's program. He called attention to published statements that he had deserted the president on the issue and asserted that he believed "earnest convictions" rose above "party and potence."

He declared that he had "deserted anyone." Democrats who joined Glass in opposing the president were Adams, Colorado; Mrs. Caraway, Arkansas; Cleveland, New York; Costigan, Colorado; George, Georgia; Logan, Kentucky; McAdoo, California; McCarran, Nevada; Stephens, Mississippi and Tamm, Maryland.

Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, announced late in the day that democratic leaders had agreed upon an amendment which would increase the amount of war debt payments in silver from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000, which the measure would authorize.

With the bonus and gold controversies out of the way, leaders looked for quick disposition of remaining amendments and a vote on currency and farm relief bill.

Couzens Speaks.

A republican independent—Couzens of Michigan—took up the fight for the inflationists late in the hour. Announcing he approved of the administration plan for vesting broad

Leap From Blazing Ship Saves Mail Pilot's Life

MIDDLEBUSH, N. J., April 27.—(AP)—Amber M. Banks, veteran mail and transport pilot who had the big scare of his life one foggy night a few years ago when he nearly crashed into the navy dirigible Los Angeles, joined the Caterpillar Club today.

Fifteen hundred feet over the Lincoln highway the motor of the army amphibious plane was jolting on an army photography assignment caught fire. He maneuvered to smother the flame, the ship lost altitude rapidly, smoke got in his eyes so that he could not see to land.

At 800 feet he signaled his companion, Lieutenant George Stead, of Norwich, N. Y., to jump. Then he jumped himself. They landed a few hundred yards apart on the Suydam property. The plane crashed into a patch of woods bordering a field on the Harup farm, half a mile away.

U. S. AND FRANCE LAY GROUNDWORK FOR TARIFF TRUCE

Roosevelt, Herriot Reach
Understanding on Arms and Security; Discuss War Debt Issue.

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—France and the United States reached understandings tonight for a tariff truce and on the principles of disarmament and security.

President Roosevelt and M. Herriot, the French envoy, in concluding their conversations in a spirit of mutual enthusiasm, took up the delicate war debt issue, but postponed any effort to reach an understanding.

It became definitely known that no deal for the December 15 payment still owed by the French was proposed and no offer was made by the president in the settlement due June 15.

The administration attitude on the debt was declared to be for collection of the June 15 installments and the French to pay back for the revision of the debt agreements after the London economic conference convening in June.

Paris To Hear Plans.

In jubilant spirit, M. Herriot emphasized to newspapermen tonight that the "proposed draft of solutions to be made upon our outstanding problems" had been taken back for official action by his government.

He predicted early negotiation of the tariff truce to be enforced pending the London economic conference.

The day also brought the United States and Canada together for an attack upon the economic problems of the world.

Just how far Mr. Roosevelt proposed to go on a consultative pact as a measure of security for other nations against aggression was not divulged.

Statement in Prospect.

A joint statement tomorrow morning by the president and M. Herriot will be issued just prior to the London conference.

Facing Prison, Woman, Mate, 2 Children Die

ST. PAUL, April 27.—(AP)—

An automobile containing the bodies of four persons, tentatively identified as Mrs. Genevieve Clark, Minneapolis woman under sentence for contempt of federal court, her husband and two children, was found tonight 15 miles south of here in Scott county.

Indications were the four had died from carbon monoxide gas poisoning. The bodies of Mrs. Clark and the two children were found in the back seat. A blanket was thrown over Mrs. Clark's head. Clark's body was in the front seat.

The identification was made by Dr. F. H. Perrin, of Prior Lake, from pictures of the family seen in newspaper.

Libby Holman Will Receive 'More Than Half a Million'

CONCORD, N. C., April 27.—(AP)—A court case involving disposition of the estimated $200,000 fortune of Smith Reynolds, late tobacco heir, began here today, simultaneously with a disclosure that the Reynolds' family had agreed to a settlement of "more than half a million dollars" upon Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds, second wife of the young man who was found shot to death last summer.

Benet Polkoff, who defended Libby Holman Reynolds when she was indicted in Winston-Salem, N. C., on a charge of murdering her husband, said an agreement had been reached for her to receive a sum in excess of $500,000.

W. N. Hendren, attorney for the Reynolds family, confirmed the statement, but neither would give

JUDGE IN MIDWEST ATTACKED BY MOB OF IRATE FARMERS

LE MARS, Iowa, April 27.—(AP)—A crowd of more than 100 farmers late today dragged District Judge Charles C. Bradley from his courtroom, slapped him, carried him blindfolded in a truck to a crossroads a mile from here, put a rope around his neck, choked him until he was only partly conscious, smeared grease on his face and stole his trousers.

The abduction occurred after the judge had refused to swear he would close no more farm mortgage foreclosures.

The story of the abduction was related by a news correspondent who accompanied the farmers and who remained with Judge Bradley throughout the affair.

Shortly after 4 p. m. the farmers entered the judge's courtroom to discuss with him hearings which are to determine the constitutionality of two new laws relating to mortgage foreclosures.

The judge requested them to take off their hats and to stop smoking. "This is my court," he said.

"The farmers rose in reply to his demands, dragged him off the bench, slapped him and shook him, and carried him bodily out of the courtroom, through the lobby of the courthouse, and onto the lawn.

There they demanded that he "swear" not to sign any more foreclosure actions. Judge Bradley, who had defied the crowd and was roughly handled some more.

When he persisted in refusing to give the oath, the farmers, most of whom were masked, loaded the blindfolded judge into a truck, climbed in behind him and carried him away.

At a crossroads about one mile south of the courthouse, the judge was released, and the farmers turned back to the courthouse. Judge Bradley fell, only partly conscious, but still refusing to comply with the demands, the witness said. The judge dragged the judge to his feet, carried him to the side of the road and threw the loose end of the rope over a sign.

"Make him get down on his knees and pray," one of the farmers shouted. The judge was pushed to his knees and declared "I will do the fair thing to all men to the best of my knowledge."

One of the farmers removed a hub cap from a nearby truck, partly filled it with oil and placed it on the judge's head. The oil and grease ran down his face as farmers threw dirt which stuck to the oil.

The judge removed the judge's trousers and threw them with dirt, then drove off, leaving the beguiled jurist standing in the middle of the road. He had offered him a ride, which he refused.

His neck was chafed and his lips were bloody, in addition to the dirt and grease on his face and hair. He was taken back to town in a car of Wilbur De Pree, son of the Rev. J. De Pree. Arriving at the courthouse, he asked to be left alone. "I'd rather not say," he replied in answer to queries as to whether he

Five Citizens Selected For Grand Jury Probe

Appointment of Outstanding Atlantans To Make Inquiry Will Be Announced in March-April Presentments.

Appointment of a citizens' committee of five outstanding Atlantans to investigate Fulton county governmental affairs and report to a subsequent grand jury, as recommended Tuesday night by the Voters' Council, will be announced in presentments of the March-April term Fulton grand jury, it was learned Thursday.

Members of the citizens' committee, who have already accepted their appointments, are Robert P. McArthur, attorney; Beverly M. DuBoise, insurance man; Julian J. Jones, real estate man; C. F. Palmer, building owner and operator; and C. C. Whitaker, consulting engineer.

The appointments were made under a provision of the Georgia law which authorizes the grand jury to create citizen committees to conduct investigations for the inquisitorial body, the committee being empowered to subpoena witnesses and compel attendance, take testimony and force production of books and other documentary evidence.

Presentments are to be returned before Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy today by the retiring grand jury are said to be far-reaching and drastic in their nature, eliminating the jury's role to force redress in county expenses.

The five members of the Fulton county commission, George F. Long, chairman, Paul S. Eberhardt, Dr. W. L. Gilbert, Walter C. Hendrix and J. A. Ragsdale were before the grand jury Thursday morning for more than an hour, and although the commissioners declined to comment, it was reported that the session assumed a conciliatory attitude, in view of the commission's pledge in a letter to make further cuts in salaries and personnel.

Investigation by Solicitor Pro Tem, Robert B. Troutman of William G. McRae's "indictable" charge against Solicitor-General John A. Boykin began Thursday after McRae filed with Troutman his briefs and data. Troutman said he is studying the briefs, interviewing witnesses and gathering legal data, but that the case probably will not get before the grand jury today.

The Boykin-McRae feud saw another development Thursday afternoon when McRae purged himself of two contempt of court verdicts by Judge Hugh M. Dorsey in city court. He gave testimony and produced a letter in evidence at a court commissioner's hearing in connection with his $400,000 libel suit against Boykin.

In accepting their appointments to the citizens' committee, the five members said that they will be "gale to serve" and that they take the posts "as a public duty."

Mr. Jones, who has lived in Atlanta since 1889, is prominent in fraternal circles, being a former member of the high council of Alpha Tau Omega, the highest officer of the organization in the southeast. He has served on nearly 25 grand juries, including the famous jury which did much work investigating the city hall graft cases. He is a real estate man, handling his own property.

"I want to make a fair and impartial investigation of any matters that the committee is asked to take up," Mr. Jones said.

Solicitor Pro Tem, Troutman Thursday took the oath of office before Judge Pomeroy.

KEY CHALLENGES TALMADGE TO ACT ON BEER OR RESIGN

Officials "Failing To Subscribe To Party's Platform" Scored by Mayor at Augusta.

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 27.—

Mayor James L. Key tonight called on the governor of Georgia to acquiesce in the universal demand for beer and to accede to the national democratic platform or resign his position.

The mayor's demand was made at a dinner tendered him by leading citizens at the Richmond hotel and followed spontaneous demonstration for beer staged earlier in the evening.

Just before the mayor made his demand he scored political demagogues and mountebanks, asserting that no man who failed to subscribe to the real plank of the national democratic platform had a right to hold public office in Georgia after the great Roosevelt victory in this state.

Richmond county poured out on a massed tonight to witness a parade for legalized beer for Georgia. It was said to be the most spontaneous outbreak ever witnessed in this historic city.

Mayor Key, who was the principal speaker, also played the "unholy coalition of fanatical dyes, who shut their eyes to facts, with the bootleggers and gamblers."

At the same gathering William P. Congdon, prominent Augusta attorney and manager for Roosevelt in this county, delivered an address in which he scored bootlegging practices fostered by "prohibition which has failed to prohibit."

If Governor Talmadge is harboring any doubts that Richmond county does not want beer, he should have seen the massed thousands who crowded the line of march as the parade moved in crawling through the mass of humanity. Those witnessing the parade yelled for beer and carried signs and placards bearing the following inscription:

"Business wants beer."
"I am not promoting beer, liquor or any other beverage." Key told the audience.

"I am for honesty in government, in craving through the mass of governments to participate in the enormous profits accruing from the sale of intoxicants. I am a beer drinker. I think a lot of them, but not as much as I did before they booted me out of one in Atlanta."

You cannot depend on the politicians. This is a matter for the people of Georgia to decide and I call upon you to do so in your own way without calling any organized group to dictate that policy. I believe the people of Georgia want beer. It will mean at least $1,000,000 a year to a depleted state treasury, and other $1,000,000 a year to city and county coffers, which at this time are sorely taxed."

The mayor and his party, including Luke S. Arnold, president of the Georgia Association for Legalized Beer, arrived in Augusta by plane furnished by the Eastern Air Transport. They were royally welcomed by a committee headed by Mayor W. D. Jennings.

A dinner was tendered the party tonight at the Richmond hotel.

"If Mr. Talmadge thinks only yo-yo players want beer, as he has said, he had better think again," Key said to the applause of his audience. "Those yo-yo players will arise and teach him a thing or two, Georgia wants beer."

Niagara Falls 'Dignity' Prevents Beer Sales

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., April 27.—(AP)—Beer drinking is considered not in keeping with the "dignity of the fifth wonder of the world" and beer will not be sold on the Niagara Falls reservation.

The popular trysting place for honeymooners must be content with something less than the legal 3.2, the state commission controlling the sale of the parks on the American side decided today. The commission met in Albany.

It would be against the dignity of the fifth wonder of the world to have beer sold and consumed near the falls," said Judge Alphonso T. Clearwater, chairman. For property, I think it would be unbecomingly for us to allow the sale of beer, and I am not a prohibitionist, either."

Department Store Will Locate In Former Keely Store Corner

H. Kessler and Company, a Georgia chain of junior department stores doing a large business in the state, has entered Atlanta, it was announced on Thursday.

The company has taken a lease on the three-story building at 92-4 Whitehall street, at the corner of Hunter street, where the Keely Company was formerly located.

The company paid approximately $75,000 for its lease, and will make extensive alterations in the property. It is expected to be open for business about June 1.

The cost of alterations and fixtures will amount to about $30,000. The lease was made on the percentage basis. This building contains 30,000 square feet.

The Kessler organization, which operates stores in several Georgia cities, will maintain 24 departments in the Atlanta store, with a maximum price limit of $5. Due to the limited nature of its business the store is known as a junior department store.

This range features focussed heat burners and converts kerosene to gas with a clean, white flame. It is attractively designed and finished.

Jinky Curiosity Still Spreading

The Jinky mystery thickens! Many letters asking for a solution have been received by The Constitution during the past few days. Two typical ones are given herewith. The first follows: "Atlanta, Ga.
"Gentlemen:
"I am a reader of The Constitution and you certainly have my curiosity aroused over Jinky. You ask if I have one in my home. I have something, but do not know what it is, and am about to believe that it is a Jinky. Please write me and tell me what the Dickens a Jinky is."
(Signed) "J. M. B."
"Logansville, Ga."

Another curious reader writes as follows: "Constitution,
"Atlanta, Ga.
"Dear Jinky Editor, will you help someone in distress? This Jinky business is driving me crazy. Please tell me what this Jinky is. I have lived a number of years but have never heard of a Jinky before. If you can't put it in the paper, send me a wire before I go plumb crazy. Yours truly,
"M. J. D."
"Covington, Ga."

Not only have many persons written letters of inquiry concerning Jinky, but the incoming phone calls have been made by hundreds daily. To all of those who are anxious to know what a Jinky is, The Constitution wishes to announce that full details will be given in Sunday's Constitution.

ALABAMA COLLEGE WOMAN'S GLEE CLUB IS HERE TONIGHT

The Glee Club of the Alabama Woman's College at Montgomery, Ala., will appear in concert at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the Emory University auditorium, it was announced. Its appearance here is sponsored by the Emory Glee Club, under the direction of Dr. Malcolm H. Dewey.

The woman's organization has a chorus of 30 voices and many featured singers and performers, including Miss Xu Kwei Hwang, of Hoochow, China, who is a student at the Alabama college. The club has made several tours in the south and two years ago played at Emory, where it was acclaimed as one of the best. Following the close of the school session in June, the girls will go to Chicago, where they will give a concert at the Century of Progress exhibition on Alabama Day.

Miss Clyde Reinhardt, of Ashburn, Ga., is president of the club, and Miss Eleanor Haddock, of Montezuma, Ga., is its business manager. Many other Georgia girls are among its singers. The entire club will be guests at a dance given by the Kappa Alpha fraternity following the performance tonight and will be escorted by members of the Emory club.

"NOT CONSTIPATED FOR SEVEN WEEKS"

Writes Mrs. Johnson After Using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Sufferers from constipation will be interested in this unsolicited letter:

"Your ALL-BRAN surely relieves constipation. I am so glad over the good it has done me that I feel I must write and tell you of it.

"For lunch I take a banana, a large one. Six tablespoons of ALL-BRAN in a sauce dish, and dip banana at each bite until all is consumed. I haven't been constipated now for seven weeks."—Mrs. Louise Johnson, 1433 Forest Street, Denver, Colorado.

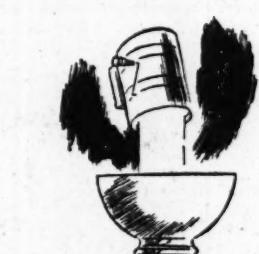

Constipation often causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness. This condition is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further promote regular habits. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the wastes.

Try ALL-BRAN in place of patent medicines—often harmful. Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Take ADVANTAGE

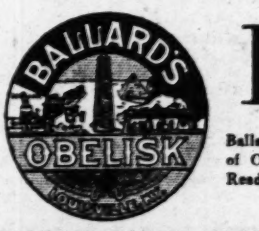

TAKE advantage of the superior qualities of Ballard's Obelisk Flour. For it makes breads and biscuits lighter and fluffier—cakes perfect in texture, pastries flakier. Baking made with this fine flour require less kneading, less shortening. They stay fresh longer too. Obelisk is a better flour because it's made from the choice, plump grains of selected soft wheat. Obelisk has been the standard of the South for over 50 years. You cannot buy a finer flour at any price. Ask for it at your grocer's. Look for the Obelisk trade-mark on every package.

226 New Members Pledged By Y Workers; Drive Ends Today

With Thursday's record of 92 members, the Y. M. C. A. drive for new members reached a grand total of 226, with only one day, today, to go.

The meeting was an enthusiastic one, and the campaigners agreed to put their best efforts into the drive today.

Division A, led by M. W. Bell and Joe Horacek, led the list Thursday with 25 new members, and was awarded the broom.

Division D, led by J. Walter LeCraw, Tubby Walton and A. Frank Head, came next with 19 members.

The first team, composed of Messrs. LeCraw, Walton and Head, led the teams with 15 members and received the shoe soles and lighted candle.

The team composed of J. M. Ruth and J. E. Branch took second place with nine members.

Mr. LeCraw's team was awarded the $5 gold coin offered by Lawrence Willett to the team making the best showing.

The drive will end officially tonight. While it will not reach the goal set at the start last Friday, Thursday's total brought it appreciably nearer, and today's showing was expected to be as good if not better. The holiday on Wednesday interfered with the campaign to some extent.

TEXTILE MAN FAVORS SHORTER WORK WEEK

EDGEFIELD, S. C., April 27.—(AP)—Henry P. Kendall, mill executive, speaking at a luncheon here, announced he was in favor of a short workweek in the textile industry with the president empowered to fix hours of labor and a minimum wage.

He said he also favored the elimination of women and children from night work.

Mr. Kendall said mills operating on a 24-hour capacity at low wages make it hard to maintain standards for workers.

He is president of the Kendall Company, operating a mill here, and others at Newberry, Camden and Paw Creek, N. C.

Marital Happiness Contest To End Tonight at 6 O'Clock

The Constitution's Secrets Century of Progress Tour Contest will close tonight at 6 o'clock. Letters reaching the judges Saturday must bear a postmark before that hour.

Many have already sent in letters giving their ideas of the secrets of marital happiness. Others have telephoned for suggestions. The letters so far received are, in some cases, written with extreme frankness. Some of the secrets are practical.

One woman found her secret of marital happiness in the expert preparation of poached eggs, her husband's favorite diet. Another said that she herself was not particularly happy, but her husband was, and she had the heart to disillusion him.

The contest was based on the picture, "Secrets," current since last Friday at Loew's Grand theater, and ending there on Thursday night. In it the star, Mary Pickford, supported by Leslie Howard, disclosed how they found marital happiness in spite of obstacles.

To the couple writing the best letter on this subject will be given a free trip to Chicago's Century of Progress or World's Fair, and three days free stay at the Stevens hotel, largest in the world. This wonder hotel is right at the fair.

In three days the winning couple will see the greatest exhibits ever assembled at any fair. They will come from the entire world, and will be housed in buildings of startling beauty.

All the contestants have to do is to study the rules, write a letter, and include it with the filled-out application blank. The judges will make their decision as promptly as possible.

Any married couple in Atlanta may enter contest.

Prize: Free trip to Century of Progress (World's Fair) at Chicago, including three days at one of Chicago's finest hotels.

Prize will be awarded to married couple who writes best letter on the subject: "Secrets of Marital Happiness."

To enter contest, clip registration blank from The Constitution starting Friday, fill in names of husband and wife, then write letter telling secrets of marital happiness. Enclose this letter in sealed envelope with the following items: (1) Photograph of husband and wife, taken separately or together. (2) List of 10 rules for marital happiness, each one sentence long. (3) Registration blank clipped from paper and properly filled out.

Contestants may deposit their sealed envelopes in the lobby of Loew's Grand in a box labeled Secrets Century of Progress Tour; or letters may be mailed either to the paper or the theater, addressed to the Secrets Century of Progress Editor.

Letters will be judged for the material in them, not for form or phraseology; they may be written by either husband or wife, or in collaboration by both, or by any relative or friend, but they must be signed by the competing couple, and must tell their secrets of marital happiness. Length of time couple has been married does not matter, or number of times each may have been previously married. No letter will be considered that is not accompanied by properly signed registration blank clipped from The Constitution, photographs of entrants and 10 rules for marital happiness.

Winners will be known as Atlanta's Lucky Married Couple.

Letters must be written legibly in ink, or by typewriter, and on one side of the paper only.

Three or more judges, in the discretion of the paper, will decide which is the winning letter and their decision will be final. In case of a tie, however, both of the competing couple will be awarded the prize outlined in Item 2.

Following is the registration blank.

Navy Balloonist Plans Stratosphere Flight

AKRON, Ohio, April 27.—(AP)—The Goodyear Zeppelin Corporation announced today that Lieutenant Commander T. G. W. Settle, chief of the navy's inspection bureau in Akron, and international balloon race champion, will make a stratosphere flight from Chicago this summer.

Settle obtained navy permission yesterday while waiting to be called to testify in the U. S. S. Akron crash inquiry. The announcement said the balloonist was asked to make the flight by Professor Auguste Piccard, famed Swiss stratosphere flyer, following the latter's visit here last March, the announcement added.

The proposed flight may be made sometime between July 1 and 20, according to Goodyear officials. The balloon which will be used will be of 600,000 cubic foot capacity, about 100,000 cubic feet larger than the one Piccard used last summer.

No letter will be considered that is not accompanied by properly signed registration blank clipped from The Constitution, photographs of entrants and 10 rules for marital happiness.

Winners will be known as Atlanta's Lucky Married Couple.

Letters must be written legibly in ink, or by typewriter, and on one side of the paper only.

700 TO BE CALLED BY FORESTRY HEAD

Preliminary Training for First Group in Georgia Starts Monday.

The first call to camp for members of the civilian conservation corps will be issued today and the trek to Fort McPherson for preliminary training will begin Monday, Herman De La Perriere, director of the Georgia Relief Association, announced Thursday.

De La Perriere said he would send notice by mail to the accepted applicants and they would be given a preliminary physical examination by Major Charles T. Senay, army recruiting officer, before being sent to McPherson.

"In all 700 men will be called during the first week," De La Perriere said. "I intend to call about 50 from Fulton county, 25 from DeKalb county and proportionate numbers from other counties which have reported."

DeKalb county's quota has been completed, De La Perriere said, adding that it was the first in the state to certify its total number of applicants to his office.

"Practically every county has had more applicants than its quota," the director said. "However, the county relief organizations are weeding out these applicants and sending to us the names of those they approve."

De La Perriere said that the Fulton county quota would be mobilized at county relief headquarters at 23 Pryor street and from there the successful applicants will be taken to Major Senay's offices for examination.

Sacred Cod Missing From Mass. Capitol

BOSTON, April 27.—(AP)—Massachusetts, there she stands—without the Sacred Cod.

Thus is briefly told the plight tonight of the Old Bay State as her wounded pride spurred on legislators, state officials and law officers in search of the Sacred Cod, an emblem of the state's earliest industry, fishing.

From the chamber of the house of representatives, where it had hung untouched by human hands for 30 years, the Sacred Cod disappeared yesterday. Its absence provoked a mystery on Beacon Hill that veteran state house attaches found hard to match.

Today as state detectives joined frenzied state house employees and amused but serious legislators in the search, suspicious eyes turned toward Cambridge, seat of Harvard University, and the birthplace of many a prank. Snooping there by one of the state's crack detectives brought forth no clues, however.

of a plea for completion of 35 miles of dirt highway between Cumming and the junction of No. 9 and No. 11 was promised Thursday by Captain J. W. Barnett, chairman of the state highway board, following a visit to his offices by a group from the Cherokee National Forest Association, headed by H. B. Smith, chairman, and W. A. Woody, official ranger.

The group pointed out that the government had set aside the Dahlonega region for work by the citizens' conservation corps and that after mountain trails had been cut the section "would be the most beautiful in the state."

The indictment was returned in the court of federal Judge Frank J. Coleman, who issued bench warrants for all three defendants.

Alleged 'Legger' Named In Income Tax Charge

NEW YORK, April 27.—(AP)—After two years of investigation, the federal government today attacked Wazie Gordon, reputed Broadway bootlegger, with one of its most effective weapons—the income tax law.

A federal grand jury indicted Gordon for the alleged evasion of taxes on a net income of $1,427,531 in 1930 and $189,159 in 1932—most of it reputedly proceeds from an illegal liquor business centering in New York and New Jersey.

The defendant was named as Irving Wexler, alias Wazie Gordon, in the indictment. Two others were named as conspirators with Gordon, Louis Cohen and Sam Gurock.

Max Greenberg, recently shot to death in Elizabeth, N. J., was also named as a co-conspirator in the indictment.

The indictment was returned in the court of federal Judge Frank J. Coleman, who issued bench warrants for all three defendants.

MAY DAY GOODIES

Party Planning in the Spring Takes Thought of Spring Colors and Makes Liberal Use of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables. May Day Offers a Good Excuse to Introduce a New Range of Spring-time Dainties. Lighter Menus Become Popular as Warm Weather Approaches.

Although May Day is not often celebrated nowadays, there are sure to be some early spring parties in full swing the first week of May. As a welcome change from the winter's hearty round of roasts, rich cakes and pies and elaborate desserts, some of the lighter, more delicate-flavored and textured foods will please the guests.

For children's birthday parties, the color scheme selected may be yellow or rainbow or light green, refreshing colors that fit in with the lovely spring flowers available everywhere.

Table decorations may match the menu, or may be significant of the occasion to be celebrated. In any event, they should be light and crystalline, instead of heavy with damask and silver.

The following dishes may be served as part of a luncheon or supper, as a buffet meal, or as party refreshments. Some of them may even be used for the family. Of course, there are no more oyster dishes permitted after the first of May!

Gingerale or Limeade Cocktail.

Prepare the foundation of the cocktail by having orange juice squeezed and cold. When ready to serve, fill cocktail glasses one-fourth full of the cold orange juice then fill with ice cold gingerale or limeade. This should not be poured until the guests are seated at the table.

Red Caviar Puff Appetizers.

Make tiny cream puffs or rich baking powder biscuits and cool them. Into a two-and-a-half ounce jar of red caviar beat 1 tablespoon very thick cream and a few drops tabasco sauce, chill till very cold. Add few drops lemon juice, fill cases, sprinkle with paprika.

Jellied Carrot Sandwiches.

Grate raw carrots. Bind them together with a lemon gelatin dessert, following directions on package. To 1 package of the gelatin dessert use the required 2 cups water and 1 firmly-filled cup grated carrots. Mold in small baking powder cans, or in straight-sided bread pans the shape of a slice of bread. When set, cut in slices and place between slices of buttered bread, which have been cut to the same size and from which all crusts have been removed. Spread the bread with mayonnaise as well as butter. These are pretty if made into small rounds and served open-faced.

Fresh Asparagus Ring.

Two bunches asparagus, 2 tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup milk, 4 egg yolks, 4 egg whites, pinch of pepper. Cut cooked asparagus in one-inch lengths. Make a white sauce out of the butter, flour, seasonings and milk, and pour it onto the well-beaten egg yolks. Cook, then fold in the stiffly-beaten egg white and the asparagus. Place in a well-greased ring mold, set in pan of boiling water and bake in slow 300-degree oven until set like a custard, about 40 minutes. Remove to a hot platter, place freshly cooked new peas in center seasoned with butter and salt, and serve with rich white sauce on the side.

Fresh Asparagus With Green Peas.

Clean a bunch of fresh asparagus, cut the tender parts in 1-inch lengths, cook in a saucepan with 1-1/2 cups freshly shelled new peas. Add barely enough boiling water to cover, and 1 teaspoon salt. Partially cover the pan, boil for 20 minutes or until tender. Add 3 level tablespoons butter and 1-4 cup cream, together with pepper and additional salt if needed. Reheat and serve very hot as a vegetable course. The water should have evaporated by the time the vegetables were cooked.

French Fried Potato Cups for Creamed Foods.

Select 6 oval potatoes, cut off a lengthwise slice. Pare the potatoes and hollow out the centers to make boat shapes. (Save the potatoes which have been scooped out and sliced off for mashed potatoes the next day.) Parboil the hollow potatoes for 10 minutes, drain, dry and fry in hot deep fat until golden brown. Use fat 300 degrees or hot enough to brown a cube of bread in 40 seconds. When well browned, drain on rough paper, and fill with creamed food, a king or other creamed dishes, or with fresh new vegetables. These are very decorative and at the same time very tasty.

Jersey New Potatoes.

Scrape small new potatoes, cook till tender in boiling salted water, drain. Arrange closely in one layer in shallow vegetable serving dish, pour over them three tablespoons melted butter, dredge with paprika and sprinkle with finely minced parsley. Serve very hot.

Maypole Cake.

Make your favorite layer cake, preferably three layers. Frost with double boiler frosting, tinted a delicate pink color with cake coloring. Frost between the layers, and lay a few slices of quince jelly on top of the frosting on bottom layer, and a few slices mint jelly on top of frosting on second layer. Frost whole outside carefully. In the exact center place a new wooden skewer, wound with dainty-colored baby ribbons, to represent the maypole. Extend the loose ends of the ribbons to the necks or waistbands of tiny dolls standing on the table just beyond the edge of the cake plate. Or a very pretty effect is obtained by placing the cake directly on a large flat mirror and the dolls around the edge of cake. These dolls may be purchased inexpensively and dressed with ribbon clothes. They may be made into powder puff dolls and used for favors if desired.

Maypole Parfait.

Three-fourths cup strawberry jam, 1 pint vanilla ice cream, 1 package cherry jello, 1 cup boiling water, 1 cup cold water, 1 cup whipped cream, 1-2 cup chopped pistachio nuts. Place bottom of parfait glass plate one tablespoon jam, then two tablespoons ice cream. Cover with two tablespoons of the cherry jello which has been prepared according to the standard directions on the package, and then whipped to a stiff froth. Top with the whipped cream which has been tinted a light green with cake coloring. Garnish with the chopped nuts. Freshly cooked strawberry preserves may be used, or fresh strawberries previously chilled with sugar and chopped. This is a very delicious and attractive dessert.

DENTAL COLLEGE
SAFES ARE RAIDED,
ROBBED OF $1,060

A gang of cracksmen Thursday morning raided two safes in the Atlanta-Southern Dental College and escaped with $200 in cash and $850 in bulk gold, police reported. The young men smashed combinations on the receptacles but overlooked $400 in other gold.

Dave Therrell, 24, of 882 Park street, S. W., former Oglethorpe football player, was recovering Thursday at Grady hospital from a bullet wound in the leg, inflicted Wednesday night by wanton gunmen, believed to be the same gang of negroes which has terrorized the northeastern section of town during the last four nights. Two negroes, Lewis Harris, 16, of 908 West Hunter street, and Escote Arnold, 18, of 13 Ashby street, who had been identified by street car operators as two bandits who had terrorized street car employees and passengers at the end of car lines, were identified by two operators Thursday, J. W. Smith and G. C. White.

2 COUPLES DROP OUT OF MARATHON DANCE

Two couples in the Marathon Dance at the Palais Peachtree dropped out Wednesday night and the management saw the beginning of the end of the most stubborn group of dancers it had ever encountered. The 32-hour grind was too much for Mabel Sheerer and Jean Eppley, the latter last year's prize winner. Only 13 couples and two boy solos remain of all the dancers who started 65 days, or 1,560 hours, ago. It is hoped to eliminate more dancers soon.

The management promises even tougher tests for the dancers in its effort to bring the dance to a climax.

ROSE SHOW TODAY AT THOMASVILLE

Annual Spectacle To Lure Thousands to South Georgia City.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., April 27.—The rose show, Thomasville's annual flower spectacle, will be held tomorrow.

Last year 20,000 persons entered the building—the large hangar at the Thomasville airport—to see the many varieties of roses which have made this south Georgia city the mecca for visitors each year.

The show is free and this year several new features have been added to make the event more attractive.

A new arrangement of placing the larger exhibits in strategic positions is believed by those handling the show to be such as to prevent the congestion of spectators at any one point.

Space allotments have been made to many nursery concerns, florists and a number of winter estates which annually have excellent displays. There will also be a number of amateur displays.

Reports reaching flower show officials indicate that both the professional and amateur exhibits will be larger and of a greater variety of roses, annuals, perennials, wild flowers and shrubs than ever before.

Through the city there are beds of roses and other flowers in full bloom this time of the year. Thomasville is known as the Rose City and the blooms are the pride of every resident.

PLYMOUTH DEALERS OPEN CAMPAIGN HERE

The aggressive campaign of the Plymouth Motor Corporation on its two new lines of motor cars started here Thursday.

The Plymouth Corporation has done the unusual by announcing two new motor cars within a week's period, and both cars, it was asserted, are being backed by an advertising and merchandising campaign.

Announcement of the new Plymouths followed the recent statement of Walter P. Chrysler that he felt that present conditions were opportune for the introduction of new products, and that "the manufacturer . . . who offers unusual values and aggressively places his products before the people, will be in a position to realize the greatest sales."

The new Plymouths are now on display here at Dodge, DeSoto and Chrysler dealers.

The Plymouth factory is working full speed on production of both new models.

Crawford and Cooper Star in Grand Picture

Two of the screen's most dynamic players, Joan Crawford and Gary Cooper, are co-starring in Loew's "Grand Picture" in a story written by one of America's foremost novelists, William Faulkner, whose "Sanctuary" and "Light in August" electrified the public. The film is "Today We Live," starting its week's exclusive run today.

Besides Miss Crawford and Cooper, the cast includes Franchot Tone, who made his screen debut in "Gabriel Over the White House"; Robert Young, Louise Gossett Hale and Rosemary Karns.

"Today We Live" presents Miss Crawford as an English girl whose father is killed in one of the early battles of the World War. On the day that she learns of his death, her brother (Tone) and her childhood sweetheart (Young) are called to the front. Diana rents her home to a young American aviator (Cooper) and devotes herself to Red Cross work. She is thrown into contact with the American, and presently they fall in love.

When America enters the war, Bogard, the American, enlists in the air corps. Diana, with the three men she loves, leaves for the front in an ambulance unit to be near them. News comes of the American's death. In deep despair the girl turns to her former sweetheart, and they are living together when the aviator returns, having escaped death.

The two Englishmen, realizing the state of affairs and that the girl really loves the American, undertake a perilous plan to blow up an enemy battleship, in which they lose their lives. The aviator has been given in order to perform equally perilous deeds and the girl sees the three soldiers depart to risk their lives for their country because of their love for her. There is a thrilling climax and a happy ending of great force and beauty.

When You Go to Buy Aspirin

and Want to Get Rid of Pain Quickly

Because of This Quick Dissolving Property, Genuine BAYER Aspirin Tablets Start "Taking Hold" of Pain a few Minutes after Taking

If you have a headache or any other common form of pain—rheumatism, neuritis, or neuralgia—you want to get rid of it as fast as possible—and in absolute safety.

Then—the first thing to know is this:

Never ask for aspirin by the name "aspirin" alone. But always say "BAYER ASPIRIN."

The pictures of the two glasses above tell the story.

For what happens in those glasses happens in your stomach. Because of a unique process in manufacture, Genuine Bayer Aspirin Tablets begin to dissolve almost INSTANTLY in the stomach. They start to disintegrate within the amazing space of two seconds after touching moisture.

Hence Genuine Bayer Aspirin "takes hold" of the average pain or headache within a few minutes after taking. The fastest, safe relief, it is said, ever known for pain.

Remember, it is Genuine Bayer Aspirin which lays claim to this unique, quick-acting property.

So be sure you get the Real Article—GENUINE BAYER Aspirin when you buy. Naturally you want the fastest, possible relief—and that's the way to get it.

The sure, safe way is to see that the name BAYER is clearly stamped, in the form of a cross, on any tablet that you take.

Keep that in mind when you buy. Carry in mind, too, that Genuine Bayer Aspirin Does Not Harm the Heart.

Ask your druggist about the recent price reduction on the 100 tablet size Bayer Aspirin.

For Pocket or Purse, Tin Boxes of 12 Tablets

the present great commonwealth.

Both from the entertainment and educational standpoint the Savannah celebration will richly repay those who view it. Especially will every young Georgian find new pride in his native state in the pageant which depicts the struggles of the early settlers and outlines many of the outstanding accomplishments of these hardy forebears and their descendants.

Georgia is more than just one of the 13 original colonies, because her record has been, in many respects, marked by greater achievements and more notable contributions to the Union than many of the other commonwealths which banded themselves together in 1776 to form an independent nation.

The beautiful and progressive city of Savannah, and the outstanding qualities of her citizens and her leadership, are among the state's most valuable possessions, and it is with a feeling of appreciation and approval that all Georgians, in spirit if not in person, will join today and tomorrow in observing the high point of the celebrations planned for this epochal year in Georgia history.

ELIMINATING THE CULLS.

In a telegram to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, the suggestion is made by the editor of Hoar's Dairyman, a leading dairy periodical of the west, that immediate and lasting dairy relief can be secured by the reduction of production through the elimination from all herds in the country of low-producing cows.

It is pointed out that in one western state it was discovered that of 38,000 cows examined, 13 per cent produced at a net loss. These cull cows were promptly sold for butchering and the market in that state relieved of a million pounds of butterfat last year.

The dairy editor takes the position that—
When 13 per cent of the better cows are causing a loss to their owners, certainly 25 per cent of all cows in that state must be losing money. Eliminate these 500,000 cows not making their owners a dollar, and you curb production annually 75,000,000 pounds of butterfat, or 18 per cent of all production in that state. On a national basis, nearly 6,000,000 cows with an annual production of about a billion pounds of butterfat would be taken out of competition with our efficient money-making cows.

The same principle of increased profits through the elimination of non-profitable elements is equally applicable to every product of the farm. The cotton grower who uses five acres to grow poor fiber staple when he could produce the same quantity of fine cotton on a single acre through intensive cultivation is actually losing money and is flooding the markets to such extent as to necessarily keep prices down.

The same thing is true of every other crop, be it food, feed or for soil enrichment, raised in Georgia. Concentration on the gaining of agricultural profits through quality rather than quantity is the only certain way to bring about general price raises.

Dairying, live stock and poultry raising have developed slowly in Georgia because our cattle have largely been low producers of milk and meat and our poultry flocks have not been heavy layers or up to the standard of weight for profitable sales.

The world of business has found out that, in the long run, goods of quality are those that will bring in the surest and largest returns. It is a principle that must be applied to agricultural products before the farmers of America will again experience the prosperity to which they are entitled.

Bill Sykes had to pay no income tax. He sold his wife a $10,000 dog and then took it back to save her the loss when the dog's value dropped to 50 cents.

In other words, if a man cheats and defrauds the public, the law will punish him, if possible, for not paying taxes.

It's a revolutionary idea, but you can persuade the public to trust our institutions by making them trustworthy.

And soon the forests will resound with the primitive cry: "Shoot, boy, you're faded."

What a land! Rivers that wash away houses and people, and we can't find a job for the idle.

You see, beer isn't intoxicating, so we make it pay enough tax to pacify the public conscience.

Also it's a wise crack that knows its own father.

HIGHWAY BOARD ACCEPTS ORDERS

to be looked into," the chairman said. The chairman said he would not call upon the state treasury for funds to meet the pay roll, now overdue. He said that the department pays its employees twice a month, on the first and fifteenth, adding that no employee has been paid since April 1.

"The governor," he served notice that he will not approve a warrant for funds which will include the salary of those he seeks to dismiss," the board chairman said. "The board has decided that these employees are under their control and inasmuch as the governor has given notice that no salary warrants will be approved no warrant will be put before him."

State Auditor Tom Wisdom, to whom the governor issued the order to strike the engineers from the pay roll, is an appointive officer and has no alternative but to follow the instructions of the chief executive.

$400,000 Pay Roll for Quarter.
The highway department pay roll for the quarter is approximately $400,000. It now has about 1,200 employees.

Captain Barnett would not comment on statements made in the board's letter to the governor that the budget as approved would necessitate a curtailment in the operations of the department. The $170,000 cut from the budget on orders of the governor is divided, $90,000 for machinery and $71,000 for salaries and other overhead expenses.

The governor's letter to the board after approval of the budget follows: Captain J. W. Barnett, Chairman, Hon. W. C. Venable, Member, State Highway Board, Atlanta, Georgia.

Gentlemen: Your communication of the 25th received.

Your communication still insists that the governor, as director of the budget bureau, has not the authority to strike employees from the budget regardless of their efficiency. Your communication also states that although practically $170,000 per quarter has been eliminated from overhead, in accordance with my suggestions; that this elimination of overhead cost will curtail actual road work and road maintenance.

In your previous communication of April 26 you stated that your board had voluntarily decided to eliminate 125 employees during the quarter before my suggestion. You also stated that this was a larger number than I asked you to cut off.

In your communication today you put me on notice that you are not going to carry out certain contracts already entered into. You also put me on notice that this curtailment of overhead is going to result in your turning back convicts to certain counties.

As a matter of fact, the elimination of $170,000 per quarter in overhead could be used materially to aid in the furtherance of contracts already made and in the care of convicts for the completion and maintenance of roads.

Your statement to me, of today, convinces me of the justice of my request, yesterday, for your resignation.

There are men in Georgia who can save the highway board and can use funds saved in overhead for work on our roads.

I wish to again call Mr. W. C. Venable's attention to his statement voluntarily made to me last December that if he could not co-operate with me, when I became governor of the state, in his official capacity as a member of the state highway board, he would resign.

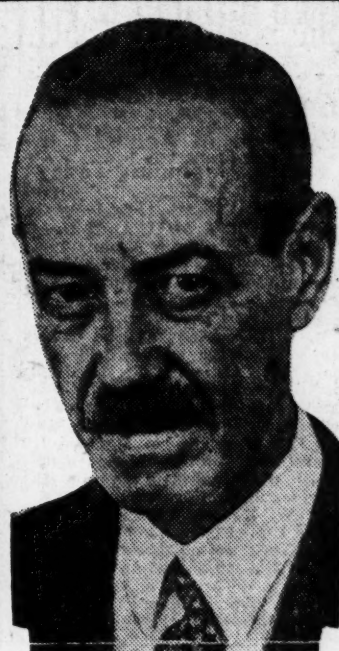

The law on the approval of budgets provides that notice be given the heads of departments for a hearing on all alterations and amendments.

I gave you written notice on April 15 of all alterations and amendments which I had made to the budget.

You have had ample hearing on these alterations and amendments and have concurred on all of them with the exception of elimination from the budget of B. P. McWhorter, E. N. Seymour, S. B. Slack, L. B. Ackerman Jr. and H. J. Friedman.

The law confers upon me the right and authority to strike these names from the budget. You have had ample hearing.

Four Members of Citizens Committee Appointed for County Probe

Above are four of the five members of a citizens committee to investigate Fulton county governmental affairs and report to a subsequent grand jury, whose appointments will be announced in presentations of the March-April term of the Fulton grand jury. Left to right, C. F. Palmer, building owner and operator; Julian J. Jones, real estate man; Robert P. McLarty, attorney, and C. C. Whitaker, consulting engineer. The other member of the committee will be Beverly M. DuBose. The photo of McLarty is by Thurston Hatcher.

After due consideration of the question I cannot agree with you and am thus striking these names, listed above, from the budget after due hearing.

The budget is amended, according to my recommendations to you contained in my letter of April 15, and is forwarded to the state auditor's office.

Due hearing has been had on this matter. My action is final. No request from your department will be honored unless this budget is carried out to the letter.

Yours very truly,
EUGENE TALMADGE,
Governor.

Letter of Barnett, Venable, Governor, accompanying the revised budget, follows:

His Excellency, Eugene Talmadge, Governor of Georgia, Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir: The undersigned have received your letter of April 26, 1935, in reply to the letter of the undersigned, constituting a majority of the state highway board and acting for the board.

The board differs with your excellency in the law in regard to the powers of your excellency over the expenditures of this department.

It is useless to go into these arguments in this communication.

It is our desire to have harmony and not stop the operations of the highway department in this state.

We are, therefore, amending the budget which was sent to your excellency on April 3, 1935, so as to conform to your excellency's suggestions of reductions in expenses for the present quarter and we specify those reductions in expenses as follows, the same having been suggested and specified by you:

New equipment $90,518 will be eliminated.

The salary of J. W. Barnett will be reduced to $500 per month.

W. C. Venable and J. P. Wilhoit will be paid $10 per day for such actual services as will be required by law.

The expenses of W. C. Venable will be reduced from $450 per quarter to $150 per quarter.

The expenses of J. P. Wilhoit will be reduced from $600 per quarter to $150 per quarter.

The total amount of salaries for the division, "general office," subtitle "accounts," will be reduced from $13,830 to $10,000.

Under the subdivision, "purchasing department," the amount will be reduced from $3,927.50 to $2,000.

Under the subdivision, "construction supervisor," the amount will be reduced from $5,714.50 to $4,200 for the quarter for salaries, and the traveling expenses from $2,825 to not exceeding $2,000.

Under the subdivision, "maintenance supervisor," the total salaries in this department will be reduced from $2,692.48 to $2,250.

Under the subdivision, "East Point shops," the total amount of $14,990.25 listed for salaries will be reduced to $10,000.

Under the subdivision, "warehouse," the total item of $2,439 in salaries will be reduced to not exceeding $2,000.

Under division No. 1, subtitle "Administration and construction," the total of $23,400.40 listed for salaries will be reduced to not exceeding $18,000, and the expenses of employees from $8,745 to not exceeding $6,000.

Under division No. 2, subtitle "Administration and construction," the total amount of $23,131 listed for salaries will be reduced to not exceeding $17,500, and the expenses of employees in this division from $6,120 to $5,000.

Under division No. 3, subtitle "Administration and construction," the total amount of $17,928 for salaries will be reduced to an amount not exceeding $13,500, and the expenses of employees from $5,505 to not exceeding $5,000.

Under division No. 4, subtitle "Administration and construction," the total amount of $20,333.45 for salaries will be reduced to $15,500, and the expenses of employees from $6,600 to not exceeding $5,000.

Under Division No. 5, subtitle "Administration and construction," the total amount of $25,616 for salaries will be reduced to not exceeding $18,500 and the expenses of these employees from $6,600 to not exceeding $5,000.

Under Division No. 6, subtitle "Administration and construction," the total amount of $18,218.35 for salaries will be reduced to not exceeding $14,000, and the expenses of employees from $4,772 to not exceeding $4,200.

As requested by you as to all these divisions, engineers, inspectors and

In the preparation of our budget we were governed by the appropriations made to the highway department by the general assembly and by the work we felt was demanded by the people of Georgia of this department in the construction and maintenance of its roads.

Your demands make it necessary that this work be curtailed in order to continue any operation of the department. We think, therefore, it is only proper that the people of Georgia should know that while we are agreeing to your demands with respect to a reduction of all the items in the budget to which you have called attention in your communication, the result of this will be to materially curtail work of the department upon the public roads for lack of available funds to carry on this work. We wish to call your attention to the fact that this curtailment of the funds, part of which are to be used in the necessary work of overseeing and supervision, will result in upsetting contracts already made and proposed to be made between the highway department and the counties for work by convict labor in the several counties of the state, and will result further in throwing upon those counties the increased burden of taxation for the support of their convicts.

We respectfully suggest that unless your excellency releases to this

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Leaders of Irate Chicago Teachers Refuse To Break Bread With Bankers

CHICAGO, April 27.—(AP)—Six leaders of militant, payless school teachers declined to break bread today with six of Chicago's top flight bankers who had invited them to an exclusive club to explain why they could not advance more money for school pay rolls.

Covers were laid for 12 in a private dining room at the Union League Club, but the teachers indicated they might be under obligations if they took luncheon with the financiers.

One by one the bankers took their seats. Charles G. Dawes, chairman of the City National bank; Solomon A. Smith, president of the Northern Trust; Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National; Howard T. Fenton, president, and Frank McNair, president of the Harris Trust and Savings bank; and James R. Leavelle, president of the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company.

Their soup cooled. They munched rolls for 20 minutes. Then a rap on the door, and two of the invited guests walked in: Howard Smith and Milton Ramsey, emissaries from the school teachers joined in an organized fight for salaries, past due since June, 1932. Ramsey is a teacher himself, Smith a principal.

"We are sorry we can't have lunch with you," Ramsey addressed the six bankers. "We shall be happy to meet you this afternoon in the board room of the City Club where our full committee awaits us and plans to eat lunch."

He suggested a session later this afternoon, but said he was told the bankers "had other business" and would meet them next week sometime.

Twice this week the militant teachers have burst unannounced into lobbies and offices of the "big five" loop banks, serenaded the bank presidents with derisive songs previously rehearsed in open air mass meetings, and in several instances forced the bank presidents for the sake of peace and order to give them a brief audience. The teachers insisted the banks must buy more school board tax anticipation warrants and furnish the cash for their back pay. The banks answered that as soon as tax collection laws were strengthened and normal flow of tax money into the public treasuries resumed they would go the limit in purchasing warrants, not before.

Paul Schneider, 44, a public school teacher, ill and crippled, shot himself to death this morning, tearing himself free from his wife's restraining hand and running into the basement to end his life. His widow, left with three children, said he had not been paid for eight months, his property had depreciated, groceries could be bought only on wage assignments and worry had aggravated his illness.

POLICE BODY RESCINDS LICENSE REVOCATION

The Atlanta police committee Thursday rescinded action taken last week when it revoked the license of L. P. Whitfield, private detective and Atlanta representative of the Burns National Detective Agency.

Whitfield, the committee announced, that the matter would be considered further at later meetings. Routine business occupied Thursday's session.

The Dixie Lodge, Rebekahs, No. 68, I. O. O. F., and the Dixie Lodge, No. 104, I. O. O. F., were granted a permit to operate a dance at the organization lodge at Boss and Marietta streets. The money raised by dances there is to be used for charity, it was said. Other action by the committee included the appointment of Pete Livingston as assistant inspector of weights and measures in Atlanta, and the acceptance of the resignation of Patrolman J. W. (Bill) Mashburn Jr. Mashburn was formerly a lieutenant.

Constructive Legislation Is Factor Of Importance in Public Welfare

By BESSIE S. STAFFORD,
Editor of Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 27.—Mrs. Frank P. McIntire, chairman of Savannah Women's Relief Committee, placed constructive legislation as the next most important factor in the matter of public welfare, after honesty and efficiency in government, in her forceful address on "Public Welfare."

She was the principal speaker on Thursday evening's program of Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, the session being held in the gold room of the De Soto hotel.

Expresses Her Desire.
She expressed her desire to have women of the state and nation turn their attention to that singleness of purpose which the feminine mind knows, to the passing of legislation which will make public welfare an everyday and inevitable fact. She has worked for nearly two years with the public whose welfare has become so badly awry.

"Take on the job of sticking to one lost cause after another, until it is landed safely among the facts accomplished, despite discouragement and defeat. Assume the responsibility for ending war for all time," said Mrs. McIntire.

"I am eager to see women realize the result of passing decent working hours for women; child labor laws that have real teeth; laws to aid in keeping families together when the wage earner is incapacitated; proper sanitation laws to safeguard the health of the people, and proper laws to control banking and investment," stated Mrs. McIntire. "When women have used their power as voting citizens to see that these laws are equally enforced in the interest of public welfare, it is then that the need for almost all the public welfare agencies as successors of the victims of unsound legislation will be gone forever."

She paid tribute to the courage of the American unemployed, and to President Roosevelt, who is striving to have legislation enacted that will benefit public welfare. Mrs. McIntire told her audience that some people are prone to say that the Reconstruction Finance plan and the reforestation plan, the courageous and humane things being done today in an effort to meet an unprecedented situation, are practical socialism and socialism.

Mrs. McIntire's Answer.
"In answer to the above," Mrs. McIntire said, "do you suppose this wonderful working President Roosevelt is wasting time worrying over what name is given to the constructive legislation he is having written? He is confronted with a condition and he is meeting it. If socialism or communism have anything to offer and we know they have, let us seize what is good of their philosophy before less sound parts of it have caught the minds of the people. For, in their restless longing for release, false prophets find eager listeners."

Bicentennial Feature.
The bicentennial feature of the program revolved around a presentation of an original pageant, written by Mrs. H. M. Franklin, of Tennesse, and entitled "Queen Georgia." The title was impressively impersonated by the state president, Mrs. J. W. Gholston, of Comer, who received attractive replicas of the 10 outstanding points of interest in the 10 club districts. The president of each district made the presentation and the pageant carried out "Today's Heritage," a part of the convention theme.

When General Federation of Women's Clubs met in 1932 in Seattle, Wash., the poppy lady doll, entered by Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, won first place in the national contest. The doll, elected to represent Miss Moira Michael, of Athens, known as the Poppy Lady, was in replica of her and costumed as she was when decorated with the distinguished service medal in Boston in 1930 by the American Legion auxiliary for originating and promulgating the Flanders field memorial poppy idea. This being the bicentennial year, the federation will take action upon offering the Poppy Lady doll to seven-year-old Princess Elizabeth, of England, for the children of Oglethorpe's England from the children of Oglethorpe's Georgia.

Bethesda orphanage, a home for boys, founded in Savannah in 1740, was offered as the first district treasure by Mrs. R. M. Girardeau, of Claxton. Its motto, selected at the time of its founding, was "Not For Ourselves, But For Others." Herein thousands of boys have been reared to splendid manhood, ready to take their places in the community, versed in habits of industry, social order, and enterprise.

Mrs. A. B. Conger, of Bainbridge, presented Radium Springs, near Allenton, as the second district's greatest possession, because it is the largest spring in Georgia, and has a historical background. Indian relics of tribes from all over the country have been found around it, and an exhaustive archaeological investigation has established that it was an Indian industrial center of large proportion and fame. The water had a reputation among the Indians for its healing properties, due to the radioactivity of the water. The clear and sparkling blue water enables the sightseer to see the depth of the spring, which is 36 feet. More than a million dollars has been spent on its beautification, and it is destined to have national and world-wide recognition.

Mrs. A. C. Moyer, Jr., of Cuthbert, offered Fort Benning, the largest infantry school in the United States, for the third district treasure. Warm Springs, known as the fountain of youth for President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and the "Little White House," his Georgia home, were presented as the fourth district's treasures by Mrs. Hartford Green. Mrs. John F. MacDougald, of Atlanta, offered Stone Mountain, the world-famous monolith, and the only one in the world, upon which will be carved the Confederate memorial.

Sixth District Offer.
Wesleyan College, the oldest chartered women's college in the world, was the sixth district offering, presented by Mrs. S. G. Lang. The college is owned and sustained by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Mrs. Ralph Butler, of Dallas, presented Echota monument, erected and dedicated to the memory of the Cherokee nation. The Calhoun Woman's Club was instrumental in having it erected and the United States furnished the funds, presenting it to the Calhoun Club for upkeep. Here it was at New Echota that Sequoyah, a Cherokee Indian, invented an alphabet and the first newspaper published in Indian language was called the Cherokee Phoenix. The monument and the Indian cemetery are the only reminders of the former seat of the great Cherokee nation.

Mrs. R. G. Dickerson, of Homer-ville, eighth district president, selected Okefenokee swamp because it is one of Georgia's seven wonders, and the largest swamp in the world. It is full of beautiful lakes and islands, fine timber, fish, animals and birds of brilliant plumage. It is the former home of the Indians and in the near future will be a national preserve for fish, birds and animals.

Okefenokee, when translated into English, means "Trembling Waters." Tallulah Falls school was presented by Mrs. H. L. De La Parriere as the ninth district possession. Situated in the heart of Georgia's beautiful Blue Ridge mountains, the school is the pride and responsibility of the entire Georgia federation, and is the only one in the United States owned and operated by clubwomen. Herein, deprived mountain children have been and are being educated, and Georgia clubwomen are distinctly grateful for Tallulah Falls school.

Mrs. W. W. Armistead, of Craw-ford, tenth district president, presented the University of Georgia, because it is the oldest state university in the United States and was first called Franklin College. Mrs. Armistead chose the university because of its far-reaching influence, as there is scarcely a village town or city that has not felt the personal touch of this institution. It was through the influence of Georgia clubwomen that co-education was granted and by a provision of its charter the primary and secondary state schools have official connection with the university, which is the head of the system of public schools.

Pleasant A. Stovall, former minister to Switzerland, spoke to the assembly Thursday morning on the international relations department hour, of which Mrs. David Natchum, of Augusta was chairman. He complimented clubwomen upon their close study of government and law, and their valiant service in the duty of citizenship. He placed the fight for peace as being the greatest duty confronting women's club today, and urged the promotion of the cause of peace. He claimed that the League of Nations opens an opportunity which women must welcome, and that Georgia clubwomen should hold up the hands of the workers for peace. Mr. Stovall praised the noble efforts of women and cited that their ability has been recognized nationally through the appointments of Miss Frances Perkins as secretary of labor, and Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen as minister to Denmark.

Resolutions Read.
The following resolutions were read by Mrs. H. B. Brunner, of Augusta, and will be voted upon at Friday's session: That Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs become a member of the national committee of Georgia bicentennial, and that the name and date of organization in 1896, be placed at the state capital in Atlanta upon payment of $250; that the federation reaffirm the measure of the 1931 legislative calendar formerly indorsed, and sponsor particularly the bill including automobile drivers' license, permissive library allowing county libraries' bill and the juvenile court act; that the federation indorse the principles of house bill No. 621, known as the children's bill, and providing for care of children by the state through its department of public welfare; that the federation indorse the movement already launched by the United Daughters of the Confederacy to promote the name of Sidney Lanier for the hall of fame at New York University, and to establish a chairmanship looking to this end, or let it be handled through some department already available, and that the standard of excellence of the districts shall include gifts to Tallulah Falls school, student and Ella F. White foundations, this action to take effect at once and that district presidents notify clubs of this action.

Colonial Dames Open Convention.
SAVANNAH, Ga., April 27.—(P)—Gathering on the day Georgia's past parades in pageantry, the Georgia Society of Colonial Dames of America opened its annual convention here today. With a background and purpose much in the spirit of the bicentennial here this week, the society delegates joined thousands of others in celebrating the state's 200th birthday.

Miss Ella May Thornton, state li-brarian, speaking before the historical group today, recalled that in the library are many books detailing little known facts of state history which should be perused during the bicentennial year.

"We all knew about Paul Revere and his famous ride as soon as we knew anything," she said, "but did any of us ever hear of the perilous dash of Agnes Hobson on Governor Heard's fiery stallion 'Silverheels' carrying important war messages from General Elijah Clarke in Georgia to General Nathaniel Greene in North Carolina?"

"And what about Mammy Kate, who rescued her master, Governor Heard, from prison in Fort Cornwallis in Augusta and bearing him out in a clothes basket and her head while the British guards stood unsuspiciously by?" She recalled many other interesting historical facts that are little known.

Mrs. King opened her program with a group of violin solos by Italian composers. This was followed by the performance of the entire "Sonata for Piano and Violin," by Cesar Frank, played by Mrs. King and Mr. Hodgson. Other numbers were Cecil Burleigh's "Indian Sketches," the "Polka" from the opera "Schwanen-Weinberger," and Sarasate's "Spanish Dance."

Friendly Counsel BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD: My boy friend lives some distance from me and has no car. When he comes to see me he has to get a friend to drive him over, which means that he doesn't come often. He writes regularly and tells me the same old thing: "You are the girl who gets the boy that brings him to see me tells me that my boy friend is not doing me right, that he is dating a married woman and waiting for her to get a divorce so he can marry her. Besides the married woman he is also dating two other girls. Which is the best thing for me to do, write him or tell him he must give up the married woman or me, or just say nothing and let things drift along as they are?"

ANSWER: There is no pleasure to be got out of any relationship, be it platonic or romantic, when the seed of doubt and suspicion has been sown in it. Therefore, it would be a mistake to let him know that you are anything about a matter so momentous to each of you. It would be a mistake to write an ultimatum to the boy friend without giving him an opportunity to defend himself against the charges his friend has brought against him. Bide your time and when he comes to see you, you may seize the opportunity to have the thing out with him. If he admits that the charges are true, your suggestion to make him choose between you and the married woman is a good one.

The married woman is not the proper sort, or she wouldn't be having an affair with another man before she had got her divorce. If you are a girl of sense, you will suggest you will be dealing fairly with yourself and with the boy friend.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD: I am a young man in distress. I am married in love with a girl and she loves me. I haven't had much experience with love because I am only 18. But I want to propose to this young lady and I don't know how to go about it. Will you please help me and don't tell me I am too young.

"DISTRESSED."

ANSWER: The only thing you can propose to a young lady is an engagement, for despite your protest to the contrary you are too young to get married. There is no point to a proposal of marriage unless you have the wherewithal to support a wife and family.

GEORGIA TEXTBOOKS DISCUSSED BY GROUP

A meeting of the state textbook commission was held Thursday at the state capitol when the introduction of new textbooks into the common schools was discussed, but no action was taken.

The state already has contracted for new textbooks to be put into use in the schools in September, but because of distressed times there has been a widespread effort to delay the introduction of these books. The books have been printed and it is expected that the commission will decide before June 1 whether they will be put into use or not.

During the recent session of the legislature, there were several resolutions offered urging the commission to cancel the contracts if possible but none of these measures obtained final adoption.

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT BY ELY CULBERTSON, World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

Swings in Team Play

In the recent match that was played in the final round of the Eastern Championships, held in New York city, between the Crookford's Club team-of-four and the Bid-Rite team-of-four, the following hand resulted in a very unfortunate swing against the former team:

West, Dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.

♠ A Q J 7
♥ K 3
♦ 8 6 3
♣ A 10 8 4

♠ 8 5 2
♥ W E Q J 10
♦ A 9 8 7
♣ K J 9 5 2

♠ K 9 6 5
♥ A 9 8
♦ K Q 9 7 5 2

At the table where Mr. Northridge and Mr. Schenken sat North and South a contract of four spades was reached and five made very easily.

At the other table, however, Mr. Jacoby and Mr. Watson reached a more ambitious contract of six-odd and were defeated 1 trick. Although this resulted in a swing of some 700 points, I believe, upon close analysis, that the Slam should be bid, as the result was dependent on only one situation. The bidding at the second table proceeded as follows:

(Figures after bids in table refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

West North East South
Pass 1♠ Pass 3♦(1)
Pass 3NT Pass 4♠(2)
Pass 5♠(3) Pass 6♠(4)
Pass Pass Pass

The hand will be discussed in tomorrow's article.

(Copyright, 1933, for The Constitution.)

1—This bid may be open to question since the hand contains only 2-1-2 honor-tricks. However, the Opening bidder does not have to hold more than a minimum to make the Slam a certainty. The mere holding of the Ace of diamonds and five spades to the Ace—this holding is not even an opening bid would make a Grand Slam a near probability. Admittedly, the dangers of duplication are great, but I believe that these considerations should be waived in favor of the policy of immediately attempting to find the best fit. A mere bid of four spades would not come close to disclosing the real power of the hand.

2—Having forced with only 2-1-2 honor-tricks, Mr. Watson is content to leave the next decision to his partner.

3—Mr. Jacoby holds considerably more than a minimum. His lack of a diamond honor militates slightly against a further bid, but his hand is a little too strong in honor-tricks to consider dropping the bidding.

4—Obviously the Slam invitation must be accepted.

There was nothing to the play of the hand—it is apparent that 2 diamonds tricks must be lost. However, had the Ace of diamonds been correctly placed or had the diamond-suit itself broken 2-2, the hand would have been an absolute laydown. The fact that a Slam such as this was bid, even though not vulnerable, and was defeated 1 trick cannot react against the accuracy of the bidding.

TOMORROW'S HAND.
All players are experts. How should North and South bid their hands to reach the best game declaration?

North, Dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.

The HONEYMOON
MURDER

BY CAROLYN WELLS

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

Perilla Fairfax and Corey Malden are married as the Long Island summer home of John Lovell, her stepfather. Tony Gaskell, Philadelphia lawyer, is best man, and Bob Cole, a friend of Malcolm Fairfax, Perilla's brother, an usher. Corey, whose home is in Richmond, is very wealthy. He is 35 and Perilla only 24, but it is a true love match. The night before the wedding, Malcolm says he has a headache and asks for aspirin. Tony produces some white tablets, which he says are better, and Corey also takes one. Bob Cole recalls to Perilla his threat that if she marries anyone else he will kill her, the bridegroom or himself, but her mother says Bob is only teasing her. The bride couple are entertained elaborately two days later at Washington, where they stop en route by motor car to Richmond. While Perilla is dancing, her partner makes a disparaging remark about Corey's mother. She pleads fatigue. Corey makes their excuses, and when they reach their hotel, Corey takes her in his arms and makes love. Corey takes her in his arms and makes love. Corey takes her in his arms and makes love.

Watch your step, Perilla, especially with that Farman lawyer. Garth is all right."

As the day dragged by Farman was persistently at her to give him an exact rendition of this point or that, until she nearly showed her resentment. But not quite. Even when he would prefer you to say anything, rather than hint such an absurdity. Every one who knows us at all will tell you that my husband and I were on most affectionate terms, and that we looked forward joyously to a happy life together. An unknown heart trouble unexpectedly showed itself, and he died instantly, many other seemingly healthy men have done. If you believe differently, tell us your proofs, your evidences, your reasons for such behavior. You have no such reasons, and as these men have done, if you assume this attitude. As a lawyer, you must know it will get you into trouble. If you are not convinced of this fact, ask Mr. Garth when he comes."

INSTALLMENT XII.

At a meaning glance from Malcolm, Perilla said pleasantly, "Oh, there's nothing to make up. You didn't want to see me, but now you have seen me again, I'm not so bad, am I?"

"You're lovely! I don't wonder Corey adored you."

Perilla nearly fell off her chair in surprise. What miracle had Malcolm brought about?

"Yes, he did adore me. We planned to be so happy."

"Yes, dear—yes, yes. Now, today I want you to remember that I am your friend, will you? The lawyers will be here, and I want you to see them, if possible, in my place. I can't understand their talk and their arguments as I used to, and you must help me out—both of you."

She smiled at Malcolm, who grinned back at her, and they both said they would do all they could to help.

Perilla said afterwards that she was scared to death that Madame Malden would kiss her, but the nurse came then and took the old lady away.

"Did you hypnotize her?" whispered Perilla to her brother.

"Maybe. Keep quiet, now. The game's never out till it's played out."

Aunt Het

"It wasn't teachin' school that made Anne's eyes get that way. It's keepin' one eye on her job an' one lookin' for a husband."
